- I don't know if the web site or app for my child's main provider's office has a list of my child's shots or immunizations

28. In the last 12 months, did the main provider's web site or app have a list of your child's medications?

- Yes
- No
- My child has not taken any medications in the last 12 months
- I don't know if the web site or app for my child's main provider's office has a list of my child's medications

Your Child's Care Plans

The next set of questions asks about three different types of written care plans the main provider may have created for your child: shared care plans, emergency care plans, and transition care plans. We are interested in your experiences, if any, with these different types of plans.

29. A shared care plan is a written document that contains information about your child's active health problems, medicines he or she is taking, special considerations that all people caring for your child should know, goals for your child's health, growth and development, and steps to take to reach those goals.

Has the main provider created a shared care plan for your child?

- Yes
- No → If No, go to #32

30. Do you have a copy of your child's shared care plan?

- Yes
- No → If No, go to #32

31. In the last 12 months, has the main provider or anyone from the main provider's office talked with you about the progress your child was making toward the goals written in his or her shared care plan?

- Yes
- No
- My child's shared care plan does not have written goals

32. An emergency care plan is a written document that contains important information about your child's health, treatment and medications. It also includes special considerations that all people caring for your child should know, for example, how your child lets you know he or she is in pain, or how to communicate with your child if he or she can't hear or speak. Families often bring the emergency care plan when they take a child to an emergency room or urgent care clinic.

Has the main provider created an emergency care plan for your child?

- Yes
- No

33. If your child is at least 15 years old, we are interested in your experiences with making plans for your child's care when he or she becomes an adult. This is sometimes called a transition plan.

Is your child age 15 or older?

- Yes
- No → If No, go to #35

34. Has the main provider created a written transition plan that summarizes how your child's care will change and how it will stay the same when he or she becomes an adult?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know
